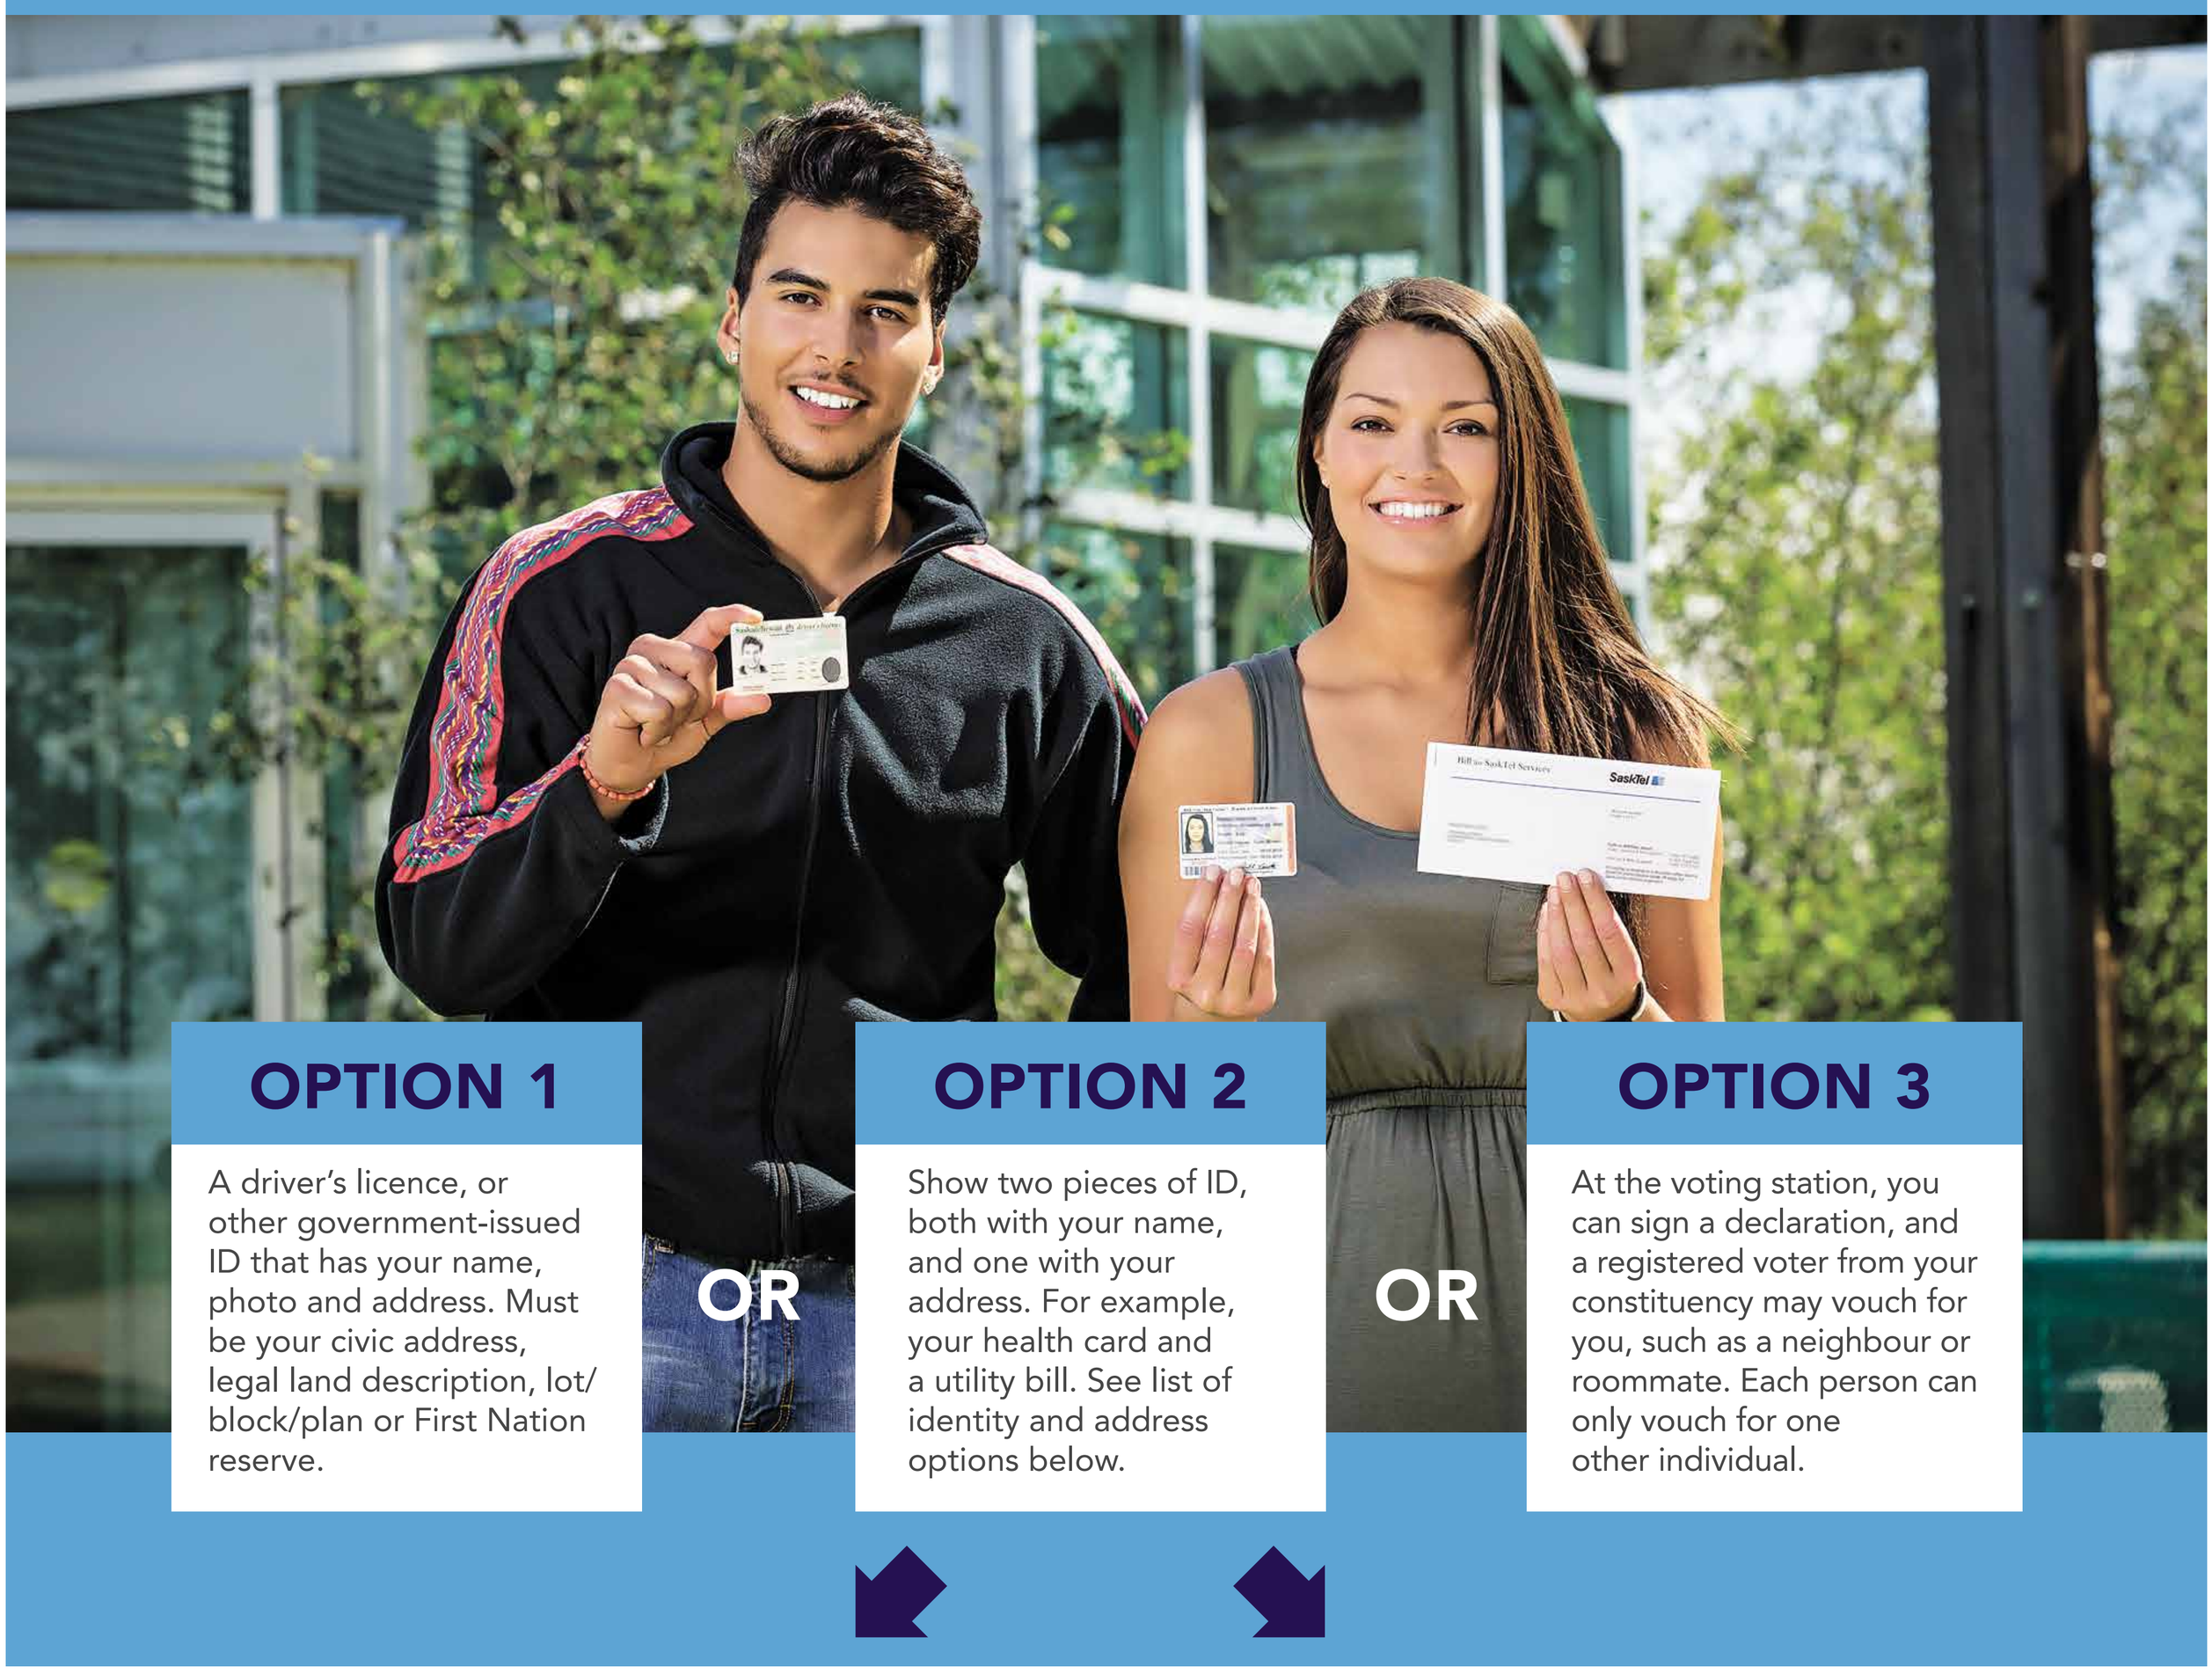
Elections SK

YOU MUST SHOW YOUR ID TO VOTE.



OPTION 1

A driver's licence, or other government-issued ID that has your name, photo and address. Must be your civic address, legal land description, lot/block/plan or First Nation reserve.

OR

OPTION 2

Show two pieces of ID, both with your name, and one with your address. For example, your health card and a utility bill. See list of identity and address options below.

OR

OPTION 3

At the voting station, you can sign a declaration, and a registered voter from your constituency may vouch for you, such as a neighbour or roommate. Each person can only vouch for one other individual.
