AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Business Manager of Randy Jeffries

I have audited the return of election expenses of Randy Jeffries for the campaign period from October 10, 2007 to November 7, 2007. This return is the responsibility of the business manager. My responsibility is to express an opinion on the return based on my audit.

Except as explained in the following paragraph, I conducted my audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the return is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the return. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the business manager as well as evaluating the overall return presentation.

Due to the nature of the types of transactions inherent in any election campaign, it is impracticable through auditing procedures to determine that the accounting records include all transactions for the campaign period. Accordingly, my verification of these transactions was limited to the amounts recorded in the accounting records of the business manager and candidate and I was not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to those expenses.

In my opinion, except for the effect of adjustments, if any, which might have been determined to be necessary had I been able to satisfy myself as to the completeness of the records as described in the preceding paragraph, the return presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial transactions of the candidate's campaign required by section 261 of The Election Act, 1996 to be detailed in the return of election expenses for the campaign period from October 10, 2007 to November 7, 2007.

Business Manager of Randy Jeffries

Dear Business Manager of Randy Jeffries:

I have been engaged to audit the Return of Election Expenses of Randy Jeffries for the campaign period from October 10, 2007 to November 7, 2007. Canadian Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (GAAS) require that I communicate with you regarding all relationships between the Candidate and me that, in my professional judgment, may reasonably be thought to bear on my independence.

In determining which relationships to report, these standards require me to consider relevant rules and related interpretations prescribed by the appropriate provincial institute/ordre and applicable legislation, covering such matters as:

- F) holding a financial interest, either directly or indirectly, in a client;
- G) holding a position, either directly or indirectly, that gives the right or responsibility to exert significant influence over the financial or accounting policies of a client;
- H) personal or business relationships of immediate family, close relatives, either directly or indirectly, with a client;
- I) economic dependence on a client: and
- J) provision of services in addition to the audit engagement.

I have prepared the following comments to facilitate my discussion with you regarding independence matters.

I am not aware of any relationships between Randy Jeffries and me that, in my professional judgment, may reasonably be thought to bear on my independence, that have occurred from October 10, 2007 to February 6, 2008.

GAAS requires that I confirm my independence to the Business Manager in the context of the Rules of Professional Conduct of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Saskatchewan. Accordingly, I hereby confirm that I am independent with respect to Randy Jeffries within the meaning of the Rules of Professional Conduct of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Saskatchewan as of February 6, 2008.

Yours truly,

Danielle Favreau
