INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To Carol Rowan, Business Manager for Eric Skonberg for submission to the Chief Electoral Officer of Saskatchewan in accordance with Section 261 of the The Election Act, 1996.

Report on the Return

We have audited the accompanying Candidate's Return of Election Expenses (the "Return") for the candidacy of Eric Skonberg, a candidate at the election of a member to serve in the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan held on the 7th day of November, 2011 in the constituency of Arm River-Watrous, which comprises the Summary of Contributions and Expenses, Schedules of Contributions from Individuals, Corporations, Trade Unions, Unincorporated Organizations or Associations and Any Other Persons or Groups of Persons and Statements of Expenses for Candidate's Personal Expenses, Petty Expenses, Hire of Premises, Advertising, Services, Goods Supplied, Travel and Hire of Vehicle, Undisputed Claims Unpaid, and Disputed Claims Unpaid for the electoral campaign ending November 7, 2011.

This return has been prepared by the business manager for the candidate based on the financial reporting provisions of Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan.

The Business Manager's Responsibility for the Return

The business manager of the candidate is responsible for the preparation of the Return in accordance with financial reporting provisions of Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan and for such internal control as the business manager determines is necessary to enable the preparation of a Return that is free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Return based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements, and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the Return is free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the Return. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Return, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the preparation of the Return in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the official agent, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Return.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

An asset to our clients, not an expense.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

Due to the inherent nature of the transactions of electoral campaigns, the completeness of contributions and other revenue and expenses is not susceptible of satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these amounts was limited to the amounts recorded in the campaign's accounting records and we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to contributions and expenses.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter in the "Basis for Qualified Opinion" paragraph, the Candidate's Return of Election Expenses for Eric Skonberg is prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with reporting provisions of Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan.

Basis of Accounting and Restriction on Use

Without modifying our opinion, we draw attention to Note 1 to the Return, which describes the basis of accounting. The Return is prepared to assist the business manager to meet the requirements of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan. As a result, the Return may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report is intended solely for the business manager, the candidate and the Chief Electoral Officer, and should not be used by parties other than the business manager, the candidate or the Chief Electoral Officer.

Emphasis of Matter

Further we report the total contributions received by the campaign of $36,502.15, total expenses of $36,397.15 and Candidate expenses paid by the campaign total $800 (included in expenses total). These amounts shown in the "Summary of Contributions and Expenses," on the Candidate's Return of Election Expenses are the same as the related totals in the Return.

Report On Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

As required by Section 238(6) of The Election Act, 1996, in our opinion, the Return presents the information contained in the financial records on which it is based.

Contributions include money provided to or on behalf of the candidate without compensation from the candidate and includes donations in kind.

Detail of the name of and total amount received from each contributor included in classes 1 to 5 in Part (a) who have provided money, goods or services by way of a gift, loan, advance, deposit or other form of assistance must be reported in the aggregate by classification in the appropriate schedule. Such contributions are to be identified in one of three categories: (A) contributions in excess of $250.00, (B) contributions of $250.00 or less but more than $25.00, and (C) contributions of $25.00 or less. The sum of the categories should reflect the total contributions received for the use of the candidate in each classification schedule.

Where a corporation, trust fund or constituency association makes a contribution, pursuant to subsection 240(6) of The Election Act, 1996, each such contribution must be accompanied by a statement which sets out the name of the person who authorized the contribution on behalf of the corporation, trust fund or constituency association, and the name of and the amount contributed by, each person who made a contribution in excess of $250.00 in a year and whose contribution was used to make up the funds contributed by the corporation, trust fund or constituency association.
