INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To Helena Lefebvre

Business Manager for Fred Bradshaw for submission to the Chief Electoral Officer of Saskatchewan in accordance with Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996

Report on the Return

We have audited the accompanying Candidate's Return of Election Expenses (the "Return") for the candidacy of Fred Bradshaw, a candidate at the election of a member to serve in the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan held on the 4th day of April, 2016 in the constituency of Carrot River Valley, which comprises the Summary of Contributions and Expenses, Schedules of Contribution from Individuals, Corporations, Trade Unions, Unincorporated Organizations or Associations and Any Other Persons or Groups of Persons and Statements of Services, Goods Supplies, Travel and Hire of Vehicle, Undisputed Claims Unpaid and Disputed Claims Unpaid for the election campaign period from March 8, 2016 to April 4, 2016 and Notes to the Candidate's Return of Election Expenses. This return is the responsibility of the business manager. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the return based on our audit.

Business Manager's Responsibility for the Candidate's Return of Election Expenses

The Business Manager is responsible for the preparation of the Return in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of The Elections Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan and for such internal control as the official agent determines is necessary to enable the preparation of election financing reports that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Return based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards as required by Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Return is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the Return. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of risks of material misstatement of the Return, whether due to error or fraud. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Business Manager's preparation of the Return in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Business Manager, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Return.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

Due to the nature of the transactions inherent in any electoral campaigns, the completeness of contributions and other revenue and expenses is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these transactions was limited to the amounts recorded in the campaign's accounting records and we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to contributions and expenses.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the Candidate's Return of Election Expenses for Fred Bradshaw is prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the reporting provisions of Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan.

Basis of Accounting and Restrictions on Use

Without modifying our opinion, we draw attention to Note 1 to the Return, which describes the basis of accounting. The Return is prepared to assist the business manager to meet the requirements of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan. As a result, the Return may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report is intended solely for the business manager, the candidate and the Chief Electoral Officer, and should not be used by parties other than the business manager, the candidate or the Chief Electoral Officer.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

As required by Section 238(6) of The Election Act, 1996, in our opinion, the Return presents the information contained in the financial records on which it is based.
