Independent Auditors' Report

To Pauline Belfour, Business Manager for Trever Ratti for submission to Elections Saskatchewan in accordance with The Elections Act, 1996

Report on the Return

We have audited the accompanying Candidate's Return of Election Expenses (the "Return") for the candidacy of Trever Ratti, a candidate at the election of a member to serve in the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan held on the 4th day of April, 2016 in the constituency of Melville-Saltcoats, which comprises the Summary of Contributions and Expenses, Schedules of Contribution from Individuals, Corporations, Trade Unions, Unincorporated Organizations or Associations and Any Other Persons or Groups of Persons and Statements of Services, Goods Supplied, Travel and Hire of Vehicle, Undisputed Claims Unpaid, and Disputed Claims Unpaid for the campaign period from March 8, 2016 to April 4, 2016. This Return has been prepared by the business manager for the candidate based on the financial reporting provisions required by section 261 of The Elections Act, 1996.

The Business Manager's Responsibility for the Return

The business manager of the campaign is responsible for the preparation of the Return in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of section 261 of the The Elections Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan and for such internal control as the business manager determines is necessary to enable the preparation of a Return that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Return based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements, and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the Return is free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the Return. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Return, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the preparation of the Return in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the business manager, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Return.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Trever Ratti as at April 04, 2016, and its financial performance and its cash flow for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for private enterprises.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

Due to the inherent nature of the transactions in any electoral campaign, the completeness of contributions and other revenue and expenses is not susceptible of satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these amounts was limited to the amounts recorded in the campaign's accounting records and we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to contributions and other revenue and expenses.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in the "Basis for Qualified Opinion" paragraph, the Candidate's Return of Election Expenses for Trever Ratti is prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the reporting provisions of section 261 of the The Elections Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan.

Basis of Accounting and Restriction on Use

The Return is prepared to assist the business manager to meet the requirements of the The Elections Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan. As a result, the Return may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report is intended solely for the business manager, candidate or the Chief Electoral Officer, and should not be used by parties other than the business manager, the candidate or the Chief Electoral Officer.

Emphasis of Matter

Further, we report the total contributions we received by the campaign of $600.00, total expenses of $450.00, and Candidate expenses paid by the campaign were nil. These amounts should be in the "Summary of Contributions and Expenses" on the Candidate's Return of Election Expenses are the same as the related totals in the Return.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

As required by Section 238(6) of the Elections Act, 1996, in our opinion, the Return presents the information contained in the financial records on which it is based.

- (b) where the candidate was not endorsed by a registered political party, pay the excess amount to the Minister of Finance. If so, affix to this Return a cheque payable to the Minister of Finance for subsequent deposit, in the general revenue fund, by the Chief Electoral Officer.

Further, if the candidate dies or withdraws before appointing a business manager, the candidate's estate or the candidate shall pay the excess amount in accordance with the above.

Part I

Contributions

(b) Detail of Contributions

Contributions include money provided to or on behalf of the candidate without compensation from the candidate and includes donations in kind.

Detail of the name of and total amount received from each contributor included in classes 1 to 5 in Part (a) who have provided money, goods or services by way of a gift, loan, advance, deposit or other form of assistance must be reported in the aggregate by classification in the appropriate schedule. Such contributions are to be identified in one of three categories: (A) contributions in excess of $250.00, (B) contributions of $250.00 or less but more than $25.00, and (C) contributions of $25.00 or less. The sum of the categories should reflect the total contributions received for the use of the candidate in each classification schedule.

Where a corporation, trust fund or constituency association makes a contribution, pursuant to subsection 240(6) of The Election Act, 1996, each such contribution must be accompanied by a statement which sets out the name of the person who authorized the contribution on behalf of the corporation, trust fund or constituency association, and the name of and the amount contributed by, each person who made a contribution in excess of $250.00 in a year and whose contribution was used to make up the funds contributed by the corporation, trust fund or constituency association.

Where a registered party makes a contribution, pursuant to subsection 240(7) of The Election Act, 1996, each such contribution must be accompanied by a statement which sets out the name of and the amount contributed by, each person who made a contribution in excess of $250.00 in a year and whose contribution was used to make up the funds contributed by the registered party.

A true and correct copy, certified by the business manager, for each such statement of contribution received pursuant to subsections 240(6) and (7), must be affixed to this Return (ss. 261(3)).

Revenue received by a candidate from fund-raising activities, meetings and sales of material of a promotional nature are deemed contributions. The total net proceeds from each source indicated must be recorded and, in the aggregate, reported in this Return.

The value of donations in kind must be recorded and included as a contribution received by the business manager where claimed as an election expense. Accordingly, commercial value is an election expense and a contribution concurrently.
