Independent Auditor's Report

To Usman Choudhry, Business Manager for David Buckingham, for submission to the Chief Electoral Officer of Saskatchewan in accordance with section 261 of The Election Act, 1996.

Report on the Return

We have audited the accompanying Candidate's Return of Election Expenses (the "Return") of David Buckingham, a candidate at the election of a member to serve in the Legislative Assembly of Saskatchewan, held on April 4, 2016 in the constituency of Saskatoon Westview. The return is comprised of the Summary of Contributions and Expenses; Schedules of Contributions from Individuals, Corporations, Trade Unions, Unincorporated Organizations or Associations, and Any Other Persons or Groups of Persons; and Schedules of Candidate Campaign Expenses, Petty Expenses, Hire of Premises, Advertising, Services, Goods Supplies, Travel and Hire of Vehicle, Claims Still Unpaid and Disputed Claims.

This Return has been prepared by the Business Manager of the candidate based on the financial reporting provisions of Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996 and in the prescribed form issued by Elections Saskatchewan.

The Business Manager's Responsibility for the Return

The Business Manager of the candidate is responsible for the preparation of the Return in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996, in the prescribed form issued by Elections Saskatchewan and for such internal control as the Business Manager determines is necessary to enable the preparation of a Return that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Return based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements, and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the Return is free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the Return. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Return, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of the Return, in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Business Manager agent, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Return.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

Due to the inherent nature of the transactions of electoral campaigns, the completeness of contributions and other revenues and expenses is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these amounts was limited to the amounts recorded in the candidate's accounting records and we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to contributions and other revenue, expenses, assets, liabilities and net assets.

Qualified Audit Opinion

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matters described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the Candidate's Return of Election Expenses for David Buckingham is prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the reporting provisions of Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan.

Basis of Accounting and Restriction on Use

Without modifying our opinion, we draw attention to Note 1 to the Return, which describes the basis of accounting. The Return is prepared to assist the Business Manager to meet the requirements of The Election Act, 1996, and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan. As a result, the Return may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report is intended solely for the Business Manager, the candidate and the Chief Electoral Officer, and should not be used by any other parties.

Other Matters

We draw your attention to the schedule of payments required subsequent to the audit report as supplementary information to the Candidate's Return of Election Expenses. This report outlines additional payments required to be made out of the bank account used during the course of the campaign.

Report on Other Legal Regulatory Requirements

As required by Subsection 261 of The Election Act, 1996, in our opinion, the Return represents the information contained in the financial records on which it is based.
