INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To Tanya Derbowka, Chief Official Agent of the Saskatchewan Marijuana Party

We have audited the Registered Political Party's Fiscal Period Return of the Saskatchewan Marijuana Party of Saskatchewan, for the period ended May 11, 2011.

Management's Responsibility for the Registered Political Party's Fiscal Period Return

The chief official agent is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of this financial information and for such internal control as the chief official agent determines is necessary to enable the preparation of this financial information that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial information based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial information is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial information. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial information, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial information in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial information.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

Due to the inherent nature of the transactions of organizations of this type, the completeness of contributions and other revenue and expenses is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these amounts was limited to the amounts recorded in the party's accounting records and we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the effect of adjustments, if any, which we might have determined to be necessary had we been able to satisfy ourselves concerning the completeness of the records referred to in the preceding paragraph, the Registered Political Party's Fiscal Period Return presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial transactions of Saskatchewan Marijuana Party of Saskatchewan as required by section 250 of The Election Act, 1996 to be detailed in the Fiscal Period Return for the period ended May 11, 2011.

Contributions include money provided to or on behalf of the registered political party without compensation from the registered political party and includes donations in kind and membership fees or dues paid to the registered political party.

Detail of the name of and total amount received from each contributor included in classes 1 to 5 in Part (a) who have provided money, goods or services by way of a gift, loan, advance, deposit or other form of assistance must be reported in the aggregate by classification in the appropriate schedule. Such contributions are to be identified in one of three categories: (A) contributions in excess of $250.00, (B) contributions of $250.00 or less but more than $25.00, and (C) contributions of $25.00 or less. The sum of the categories should reflect the total contributions received, in the fiscal period, for the use of the registered political party in each classification schedule.

Where a corporation, trust fund or constituency association makes a contribution, pursuant to subsection 240(6) of The Election Act, 1996, each such contribution must be accompanied by a statement which sets out the name of the person who authorized the contribution on behalf of the corporation, trust fund or constituency association, and the name of and the amount contributed by, each person who made a contribution in excess of $250.00 in a year and whose contribution was used to make up the funds contributed by the corporation, trust fund or constituency association.

Where a registered party makes a contribution, pursuant to subsection 240(7) of The Election Act, 1996, each such contribution must be accompanied by a statement which sets out the name of and the amount contributed by, each person who made a contribution in excess of $250.00 in a year and whose contribution was used to make up the funds contributed by the registered party.

A true and correct copy, certified by the chief official agent, for each such statement of contribution received pursuant to subsections 240(6) and (7), must be affixed to this Return (ss. 250(3)).

Revenue received by a registered political party, during the fiscal period, from fund-raising activities, meetings and sales of material of a promotional nature are deemed contributions. The total net proceeds from each source indicated must be recorded and, in the aggregate, reported in this Return.

The value of donations in kind must be recorded and included as a contribution received by the chief official agent where claimed as an election expense. Accordingly, commercial value is an election expense and a contribution concurrently.
