Issuance of Writ

On October 10, 2007, the Twenty-Fifth Saskatchewan Legislature was dissolved, pursuant to section 6 of The Legislative Assembly and Executive Council Act, 2007, by the Honourable Dr. Gordon L. Barnhart, Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan. Also on the 10th of October, an Order of the Lieutenant Governor in Council was passed, pursuant to section 31 of The Election Act, 1996 (The Act), directing the Chief Electoral Officer to issue a Writ of Election to each of the Province's 58 constituency returning officers enabling the Saskatchewan electorate to go to the polls on November 7, 2007. An Election Calendar for the Twenty-Sixth Provincial General Election is included on the last page of the Official Report.

At dissolution, standing in the Legislative Assembly was: 30 New Democrat, 28 Saskatchewan Party.

Provincial Constituency Boundaries

The provincial constituency boundaries were enacted in 2002 under The Representation Act, 2002, based on the recommendations of the Constituency Boundaries Commission, 2002 (the "Commission"), as established under The Constituency Boundaries Act, 1993. The Commission recommended the establishment of 58 provincial constituencies inclusive of 2 northern constituencies and 56 southern constituencies of equal voter size. The Province's constituency boundaries and Directory of Communities are set out in Appendices IX, X and XI.

Constituency Returning Officers

An important part of maintaining election readiness is having constituency returning officers for the Province's 58 constituencies. The Province's returning officers, for each of the Province's constituencies, are appointed by the Chief Electoral Officer. Constituency returning officers were responsible for the free and fair conduct of the Province's Twenty-sixth provincial general election. See Appendix I for a listing of constituency returning officers.

Provincial Political Parties

The November 7th, 2007, election acknowledged 8 provincial political parties for purposes of fielding candidates. Pursuant to section 231 of the Act, the Office recognized the existence of the following political parties in the Register of Political Parties<sup>1</sup>:

Green Party of Saskatchewan
New Democratic Party, Sask. Section
Progressive Conservative Party of Saskatchewan
Saskatchewan Democratic Action Party
Saskatchewan Liberal Association

---

<sup>1</sup> The following Statement of Votes Appendices abbreviate the names of the Province's registered political parties as follows: Green Party of Saskatchewan - GP; New Democratic Party, Sask. Section - NDP; Progressive Conservative Party of Saskatchewan - PC; Saskatchewan Democratic Action Party - SDAP; Saskatchewan Liberal Association - L; Saskatchewan Marijuana Party - SKMP; Saskatchewan Party - Sask; Western Independence Party of Saskatchewan (W.I.P.) - WIP.

Saskatchewan Marijuana Party
Saskatchewan Party
Western Independence Party of Saskatchewan (W.I.P.)

See Appendix II for a list of registered political parties, their respective leaders and chief official agents.

Candidate Nomination

Nomination of candidates concluded on October 22, 2007. At close of nomination 241 candidates had been nominated: 48 Green Party, 59 New Democratic Party (the nominated candidate for the party in the constituency of Swift Current withdrew before close of nominations and was replaced by a new candidate), 5 Progressive Conservative, 58 Saskatchewan Liberal Association, 58 Saskatchewan Party (subsequent to the close of nominations, the candidate in Regina Walsh Acres withdrew and could not be replaced), 5 Saskatchewan Marijuana Party, 8 Western Independence Party. The Saskatchewan Democratic Action Party chose not to file candidates at this election and on the day set for the close of nominations applied for the voluntary deregistration of the party. Appendix III sets out candidates by provincial constituency.

Provincial Enumeration

From the 10th of October through to the 19th, an enumeration of eligible electors was conducted for each of the Province's 2,722 polling divisions. The Province's enumerators sat on November 3, 2007, pursuant to section 26 of the Act, to make necessary revisions to the voters' list. As a result of these efforts, 598,234 provincial residents were declared eligible to vote, as established on the revised voters' list. Those residents not recognized on the revised voters' list were able to register to vote by making a declaration at an advance poll or on polling day.

Voting

On the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th days of November, 156 advance polls were conducted in the Province's 58 constituencies. To facilitate electoral participation, special polling stations were established in 69 hospitals and 5 remand centres. Regular polling stations were open from 9:00 am to 8:00 pm C.S.T. on the 7th of November enabling the Province's 598,234 eligible voters the opportunity to exercise their democratic franchise. Eligible voters unable to attend either a regular, special or advance poll were entitled to vote by absentee ballot.

Electoral Results

Unofficial electoral results were published on the evening of the November 7, 2003 resulting in 38 Saskatchewan Party and 20 New Democrat members' elect. None of the candidates were elected by acclamation. Deposits were forfeited by 143 of the Province's 241 candidates, pursuant to section 47 of the Act, for not obtaining at least one half of the total number of votes cast for the candidate elected. Deposits were forfeited by 2 candidates who withdrew, pursuant to section 52 of the Act. The 145 candidates forfeiting their deposits included: 48 Green Party, 20 New Democratic Party, 5 Progressive Conservative, 56 Saskatchewan Liberal Association, 5 Saskatchewan Marijuana Party, 3 Saskatchewan Party and 8 Western Independence Party.

On November 19, 2007, constituency returning officers tabulated the results of votes cast in the hospital and remand centre polls and by absentee ballot. These figures were then reflected in the relevant constituency results concluding the final count. Upon completion of the final count, on November 30, 2007, 57 out of 58 of the Province's constituency returning officers made a Return to the Writ of Election.

On December 7, 2007, the Office published in The Saskatchewan Gazette (Vol. 103, No. 49) a notice of receipt of the Return to the Writ and the names of 57 candidates elected. As a result of the judicial recount, pursuant to section 155 of the Act, notice of receipt of the Return and the name of the candidate elected for the constituency of Meadow Lake was not published on the December 7th date.

Judicial Recount

Pursuant to section 155 of the Act, a judicial recount was conducted in the constituency of Meadow Lake. Under the Act, a constituency returning officer, upon request by any candidate or business manager, is legislated to apply to the Saskatchewan Court of Queen's Bench (the "Court") to ask the Court to undertake a judicial recount, if, after final count, the margin of victory of the candidate declared to be elected is less than the total number of all unopened envelopes, rejected ballots and ballots objected to.

In the constituency of Meadow Lake, upon final count, the Saskatchewan Party candidate was declared elected with a plurality of 37 votes. On judicial recount, pursuant to section 155, the margin of the elected candidate was reduced by one to 36 votes.

On December 21, 2007, the Office, pursuant to section 174 of the Act, published in The Saskatchewan Gazette (Vol. 103, No. 51) a notice of receipt of the Return to the Writ and the named candidate elected for the constituency of Meadow Lake.

See Appendices IV, V and VI for the electoral results of the Province's 58 constituencies.
