INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Report on the Return

We have audited the accompanying Registered Political Party's Return of Election Expenses (the "Return") for the Saskatchewan Liberal Association, Saskatchewan Section, for the campaign ending September 12, 2018, which comprises the Summary of Election Expenses, and Statements of Expenses for Petty Expenses, Hire of Premises, Advertising, Services, Goods Supplied, Travel and Hire of Vehicle, Undisputed Claims Unpaid, and Disputed Claims Unpaid for the election expenses ending September 12, 2018.

This return has been prepared by the Chief Official Agent for the Registered Party based on the financial reporting provisions of Section 251 of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan.

The Chief Official Agent's Responsibility for the Return

The Chief Official Agent of the registered party is responsible for the preparation of the Return in accordance with financial reporting provisions of Section 251 of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan and for such internal control as the Chief Official Agent determines is necessary to enable the preparation of a Return that is free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Return based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements, and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the Return is free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the Return. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Return, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the preparation of the Return, in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Chief Official Agent, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Return.

Accounting Group LLP
Tax ♦ Assurance ♦ Management

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

Due to the inherent nature of the transactions of electoral campaigns, the completeness of election expenses is not susceptible of satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these amounts was limited to the amounts recorded in the party's accounting records and we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to expenses.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter in the "Basis for Qualified Opinion" paragraph, the Registered Political Party's Return of Election Expenses for the Saskatchewan Liberal Party, Saskatchewan Section is prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with reporting provisions of Section 251 of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan.

Basis of Accounting and Restrictive on Use

Without modifying our opinion, we draw attention to the Note to the Return, which describes the basis of accounting. The Return is prepared to assist the Chief Official Agent to meet the requirements of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan. As a result, the Return may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report is intended solely for the Chief Official Agent and the Chief Electoral Officer, and should not be used by other parties.

Emphasis of Matter

Further we report the total election expenses of $ NIL shown in the "Summary of Election Expenses," on the Registered Political Party's Return of Election Expenses are the same as the related total in the Return.

Report On Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

As required by Section 237(4) of The Election Act, 1996, in our opinion, the Return presents the information contained in the financial records on which it is based.

Note

1. This Return must be transmitted to the Chief Electoral Officer within six (6) months after polling day of the election to which it relates.

Subsection 251 (1)

2. This Return must be accompanied by the auditor's report to the chief official agent of the party on the information given in this Return.

Subsection 251 (1)

3. The commercial value of goods and services donated (other than volunteer labour or goods valued at $200.00 or less), and the difference between the amount paid and the commercial value of goods and services provided, are considered to be election expenses. If the total of "commercial value" is greater than the total of "amount paid" it is the larger of the two figures that is used in the calculation of election expenses incurred by the registered political party. See definition of "commercial value", subsection 220(c).

4. A statement, signed and receipted, by the donor and by the chief official agent, supported by a verification from an independent commercial source of the amount expensed must be submitted when making claim of commercial value as an election expense.

Subsections 220(c) and 251(2)(b)

5. All payments of more than $25.00 must be accompanied by a supplier document that states the particulars of the election expense and by a receipt or cancelled cheque that provides proof of payment. The supplier documents and proofs of payment must be submitted with this Return.
