INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To Vanessa Gardiner, chief official agent for Darwin Roy for submission to the Chief Electoral Officer of Saskatchewan in accordance with Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996

REPORT ON THE RETURN

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the accompanying Registered Political Party's Elections Expense Return (the "Return") for Darwin Roy (the "Party"), for the campaign period from January 18, 2022 to February 15, 2022. Which comprises the Summary of Election Expenses, and Statements of Expenses for Hire of Premises, Advertising, Services, Goods Supplied, Travel and Hire of Vehicle, Undisputed claims Unpaid and disputed Claims Unpaid for the electoral campaign ending February 15, 2022.

This Return has been prepared by the chief official agent for the registered political party based on the financial reporting provisions Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan.

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the Return of Darwin Roy is prepared, in all material respects in accordance with the reporting provisions of Section 261 of the The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by elections Saskatchewan.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

Due to the inherent nature of the transactions of electoral campaigns, the completeness of election expenses is not susceptible of satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification of these amounts was limited to the amounts recorded in the registered political party's accounting records and we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to expenses.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Return section of our report. We are independent of the Registered Political Party in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Return in Saskatchewan, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion.

Basis of Accounting and Restriction on Use

Without modifying our opinion, we draw attention to Note 1 to the Return, which describes the basis of accounting. The Return is prepared to assist the chief official agent to meet the requirements of The Elections Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan. As a result, the Return may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report is intended solely for the chief official agent of the registered political party and the Chief Electoral Officer, and should not be used by parties other than the chief official agent or the Chief Electoral Officer.

The Chief Official Agent's Responsibilities for the Return

The chief official agent of the registered political party is responsible for the preparation of the Return in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan and for such internal control as the chief official agent determines is necessary to enable the preparation of a Return that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the registered political party's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Return

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Return as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this Return. As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Return, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the campaign's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the chief official agent.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

REPORT ON OTHER LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

As require by subsection 238(6) of The Election Act, 1996, in our opinion, the Return presents the information contained in the financial records on which it is based.

REPORT ON THE CHECKLIST FOR AUDITS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ELECTION ACT, 1996 REQUIREMENTS

In accordance with Section 222 of The Election Act, 1996 and the accounting guidelines issued by Elections Saskatchewan, we have been engaged to complete the attached E-540 - Registered Political Party Election Expense Return Audit Checklist. This other reporting responsibility relates to our audit of the Return. We prepared the E-540 - Registered Political Party Election Expense Return Audit Checklist.

This report has been prepared in accordance with Canadian Standard on Related Services (CSRS) 4460, Reports on Supplementary Matters Arising from an Audit or a Review Engagement. Our responsibility is to report on the E-540 - Registered Political Party Election Expense Return Audit Checklist. This standard requires us to comply with ethical requirements and to plan and perform procedures to address the other reporting responsibility. The procedures were selected based on our professional judgment to enable us to form a basis for this report. The procedures vary in nature from, and are less in extent than for, those required when providing an audit opinion or a review conclusion. Users are cautioned that the procedures performed may not be suitable for their purposes.

Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion or a review conclusion on the E-540 - Registered Political Party Election Expense Return Audit Checklist.

In response to the other reporting responsibility, we completed the E-540 - Registered Political Party Election Expense Return Audit Checklist using knowledge obtained during our audit of the Return.

This report is intended solely for use by the Chief Electoral Officer of Saskatchewan and should not be used by other parties.
