Independent Auditor's Report

To Wayne Mastrachuk, chief official agent for The Progressive Conservative Party of Saskatchewan for submission to the Chief Electoral Officer of Saskatchewan in accordance with Section 261 of The Election Act, 1996:

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the Registered Political Party's Fiscal Period Return (The "Return") of The Progressive Conservative Party of Saskatchewan (the "Party"), which is comprised of Contributions, Other Revenue, and Expenditures for the year ended December 31, 2022.

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion section of our report, the Registered Political Party's Fiscal Period Return of The Progressive Conservative Party of Saskatchewan for the year ended December 31, 2022, is prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the reporting provisions of Section 250 of The Elections Act, 1996 in the prescribed form issued by Elections Saskatchewan.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

Due to the inherent nature of the transactions of a registered political association, the completeness of contributions, other revenues and expenses are not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, our verification was limited to the amounts recorded in the Party's accounting records and we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to contributions, other revenues or expenses.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Party in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Return

The Chief Official Agent is responsible for the preparation of the Return in accordance with the reporting provisions of Section 250 of The Elections Act, 1996 in the prescribed form issued by Elections Saskatchewan, and for such internal control as the Chief Official Agent determines is necessary to enable the preparation of the Return that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the registered political party's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Return as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this Return.

As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Party's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Chief Official Agent.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Restriction on Use

The Return was prepared by the Chief Official Agent to meet the requirements of The Elections Act, 1996. As a result, the Return may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report is intended solely for the Chief Official Agent and the Chief Electoral Officer and should not be used by any other parties.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

As required by Section 238(6) of The Elections Act, 1996, in our opinion, the Return presents the information contained in the financial records on which it is based.

Contributions include money provided to or on behalf of the registered political party without compensation from the registered political party and includes donations in kind and membership fees or dues paid to the registered political party.

Details of the name of and total amount received from each contributor included in classes 1 to 5 in Part (a) who have provided money, goods or services by way of a gift, loan, advance, deposit or other form of assistance must be reported in the aggregate by classification in the appropriate schedule. Such contributions are to be identified in one of three categories: (A) contributions in excess of $250.00, (B) contributions of $250.00 or less but more than $25.00, and (C) contributions of $25.00 or less. The sum of the categories should reflect the total contributions received, in the fiscal period, for the use of the registered political party in each classification schedule.

Revenue received by a registered political party, during the fiscal period, from fund-raising activities, meetings and sales of material of a promotional nature are deemed contributions. The total net proceeds from each source indicated must be recorded and, in the aggregate, reported in this Return.
